Preamble

Acting as the voice of all students enrolled at Jacobs University, the Undergraduate Student Government (USG) shall actively work to improve the quality of life (in all its aspects) for the Undergraduate Student Body (USB), along with the university administration and community as a whole. The purpose of the Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is to work in the best interest of the student body.

According to the Jacobs University Academic Constitution, "the responsibilities of the Student Government include representing Students towards the respective bodies within as well as outside Jacobs University, serving as the link between Students and university authorities, administration or other groups on campus and actively contributing to the communication between those bodies, appointing all representatives of students, and ensuring continuity."

Believing in the right of self-governance, the Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall elect its representatives. Its Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is entirely student-run and politically independent of any administrative bodies.

Article I
The Undergraduate Student Government

The USG is formed in order to provide an official and representative organization to receive student questions and suggestions, investigate student problems and take appropriate action, provide the official voice through which the student S: opinion interests may be expressed, encourage the development of responsible student participation in the overall policy and decision making processes of the university community, foster an awareness of the students' role in the academic community, enhance the quality and scope of education at Jacobs University Bremen, provide means for responsible and effective participation in the organization of student affairs, and establish guidelines S: and including this Constitution for the Undergraduate Student Government at Jacobs University. S: The USG is a technocratic parliamentary democracy.

SECTION 1. S: EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE LEGISLATIVE, EXECUTIVE AND JUDICIAL POWER

The Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall have the right to self-governance through the Undergraduate Student Government (USG), S: which is the main authority body of the USB, S: through consisting of:

- i. the USG Parliament (composed S: out of the S: Elected Offices 10 Members of Parliament), having the legislative power of the USB,
- ii. the USG Executive Unit (S: composed out of the Student Committees composed of the President's office, the Executive Committees and the supporting structures), having the executive power of the USB,
- iii. the USG Student Court, having the judicial power.

SECTION 2. POWER AND DUTY

The USG shall:

- i. inform the Student Body on recent, present and future endeavours,
- ii. organize S: and support activities involving the USB and maintain the student budget, Colin: [I don't like the phrasing of this item: It should be more explicit that the student budget is used to support (financially) for activities involving the USB.]

- iii. establish ~~S: student~~ ^{Colin:} [This is using a different term than usual, hence confusing.] Committees to deal with specific subjects, define their mandates, appoint their members, and monitor their activities,
- iv. meet regularly to discuss progress in ~~S: student~~ Committees and to address all issues on the respective agenda,
- v. at all times uphold and represent the interests of the USB,
- vi. enact legislation governing the conduct of the USB after consultation with the USB,
- vii. serve as liaison with ^{Colin:} [for?] the university administration, faculty, staff and college authorities.

SECTION 3. STUDENT RIGHTS

Each student shall have the right to:

- i. vote in popular elections,
^{RS:}
- ii. run for elections or appointments for the offices of the USB. This includes students currently a part of the USB at the time of the elections, and excludes students on disciplinary probation,
- iii. apply to be part of a Committee,
- iv. affiliate themselves with a college of her/his choice, in case of living off-campus,
- v. affiliate themselves with a focus area of her/his choice, for Foundation Year students,
- vi. start a student club ~~S: and to join any~~ or join any student club (regardless of background), according to the requirements set by ~~S: the~~ Campus Life and the by-laws of the USB,
- vii. initiate a popular initiative or petition to suggest legislative proposals or any kind of action to the USB.

SECTION 4. STUDENT DUTIES

Each student shall have the duty and obligation to:

- i. act in accordance with the provisions stipulated by the constitution and the active by-laws that support it,
- ii. accept final decisions of the Disciplinary Board ^{S:} and the University Committee on Academic Integrity, ^{Colin:} [Is this a good idea? If the decision was according to the Jacobs policies and in compliance with state and federal laws, this doesn't need saying. Otherwise, the decisions should not be accepted at all.]
- iii. respect decisions taken by the USB as long as they are in accordance with this constitution.

Article II USB Parliament

The USB Parliament shall have the role to coordinate the USB, to explicitly define its tasks and to distribute workload. The USB Executive Unit shall ~~S: fulfill the proposals of~~ work on tasks delegated to them by the USB Parliament, ^{Colin:} upon common agreement between the two bodies [How does this work? The chair says "Okay" and that's the agreement? This should be explicit.].

SECTION 5. COMPOSITION OF THE USB PARLIAMENT

The Undergraduate Parliament ~~S: shall be composed~~ consists of ~~S: the Elected Offices:~~

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| i. President | vi. Vice-President |
| ii. College Representative: Krupp | vii. Focus Area Representative: Diversity |
| iii. College Representative: Mercator | viii. Focus Area Representative: Health |
| iv. College Representative: College 3 | ix. Focus Area Representative: Mobility |
| v. College Representative: Nordmetall | x. Treasurer |

ten (10) elected Members of Parliament. ^{S:} The chairs of the USB Executive Committees are invited as standing guests ^{S: Colin:} and given all member rights except voting power [Somewhat not well defined statement. Maybe just omit it? Details are defined in the by-laws.].

Article III
The Undergraduate Student Executive Unit

SECTION 6. THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT EXECUTIVE UNIT STRUCTURE

The Undergraduate Student Executive Unit Structure shall have the following Committees and departments:

- i. President's Office, consisting of the President and the Vice-President,
 - ii. Academic Affairs^{RS}; ~~chaired by a~~ Focus Area Representative,
 - iii. Campus Affairs^{RS}; ~~chaired by a~~ Residential College Representative,
 - iv. Financial Affairs^S; ~~chaired by the~~ Treasurer, ^S:
 - v. International Affairs,
 - vi. Support structures: Secretaries, IT Department, PR^S: Department.
- ^{Colin}: The chairs for the ^S:Academic and Campus Affairs Committee Executive Committees are ^S:elected within their committee after each USG election (either in May or December) and ^S:elected approved with a simple majority within the USG Parliament [Maybe just strike this?].

SECTION 7. THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

The President's Office shall be the main representative figure of the USB and the USG and be responsible for the coordination of all activities of the USG and its departments, having the following recurring tasks:

- i. ~~^{RS}:preside over meetings of the~~ USG Parliament, ^N: [The moderation of Parliament meetings is regulated in Section 42]
- ii. inform the USB and the USG about matters falling within their competence, especially when requested by these bodies,
- iii. be ^S:~~the main~~ responsible for the USG's actions and oversee its structure and inner workings,
- iv. oversee the USG's public relations externally, and coordinate the USG's presentation in the media, both electronically and printed,
- v. supervise the appointment and/or selection of the supportive positions and infrastructure.

It defines its own Bylaws.

SECTION 8. THE ACADEMIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Academic Affairs Committee (AAC) shall be responsible for the representation of the ^S:~~undergraduate~~ USB in all Academic University Committees and serve as a point of contact for students regarding all academic matters relevant to education (that is, teaching, learning and assessment), having the responsibilities outlined in its Bylaws.

SECTION 9. THE CAMPUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Campus Affairs Committee (CAC) shall be responsible for the representation of the USB in all^S: ~~non-academic~~ university-enacted-structures that affect student life. Its mission is to ameliorate student experience while at Jacobs University and to serve as a point of contact for students regarding all non-academic matters.

SECTION 10. THE FINANCIAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Financial Affairs Committee shall be responsible for all USG matters pertaining to finances and strive to direct the students' budget in ways to benefit the student body. Its Bylaws define clear guidelines, funding criteria and procedures.

SECTION 11. ^S:THE INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

^S:The International Affairs Committee shall be responsible for all USG matters pertaining to cooperations with other universities and their student bodies.

SECTION 12. SUPPORT STRUCTURES

The Support structures shall foster the inner workings of the USG and help both the USG Parliament and Executive Unit in their actions. Further roles can be defined and must be publicly justified, then they can be attributed to USG members depending on the respective need, in addition to the support structures explicitly listed below:

§1 The Secretaries shall:

- i. set the Agenda for USG meetings,
- ii. be responsible of communication and documents, such as agendas and minutes,
- iii. organize ^{S:}and follow up on tasks, check for completion; ^{S:}
- iv. organize and update the USG documentation, ensuring full transparency of the USG's actions

§2 The IT Department shall:

- i. be responsible for the maintenance of the USG related websites and for the updated information,
- ii. be the link between the USB and the IT department of the University.

§3 Public Relations ^{S:Manager}Department shall:

- i. be responsible for the image of the USG, and implicitly of the University,
- ii. cooperate with the Parliament on internal and external communication.

These roles shall be positions any student can apply for, ^{S:}and the USG shall elect or choose a candidate, i.e. this decision is to be carried out by USG members only then the candidate is selected within the USG Parliament.

Article IV Student Court

The Student Court shall be an independent body, responsible of checking and judging the legitimacy of the actions of the USG Parliament and Executive Unit. As it is may not have regular tasks, it shall be formed upon request by either the USB via a petition, the USG Parliament or the USG Executive Unit, in order to prosecute an accused body.

S:

SECTION 13. POWER AND DUTIES

The Student Court shall:

- i. at all points of time uphold this constitution in the interests of the USB,
- ii. interpret this constitution, by-laws, amendments and all subsequent legislation in the spirit of community standards,
- iii. mediate between two (2) or more parties of the USG or USB, at the request of any of the members involved,
- iv. determine in a trial, as specified in the by-laws on Student Court procedure, the guilt or innocence of any object of its jurisdiction who is accused of violations of this constitution and its by-laws, and assess penalties for such violations according to the by-laws on Student Court procedure,
- v. be permitted to defer a case to the next higher instance as specified in the by-laws on Student Court procedure, if the case is decided to be beyond its competence to judge,
- vi. review the decisions made and actions taken by the Student Parliament and ensure that they are made under the provisions of this constitution and its by-laws,
- vii. issue an evaluation of the Student Parliament's budget allocation, efficiency and progress on agenda points with recommendations for improvement, whenever asked to do so
- viii. recommend, at its discretion, changes in or additions to this constitution, its by-laws, or subsequent legislation,
- ix. be present at official Student Parliament meetings if requested by the Student Parliament or Government.

SECTION 14. STUDENT COURT FORMATION

The Student Court shall consist of five (5) judges directly elected.

§1 In case the USG Parliament is accused of wrong doings, then the USG Executive Unit takes the task of forming the Student Court. Three (3) Judges shall be members of the USG Executive Unit, and two (2) judges shall be elected from the USB.

§2 In case the USG Executive Unit is accused of wrong doings, then the USG Parliament takes the task of forming the Student Court. Three (3) Judges shall be members of the USG Parliament, and two (2) judges shall be elected from the USB.

§3 In case both the USG Parliament and Executive Unit are accused of wrong doings, then the initiators of the petition against the two bodies takes the task of forming the Student Court. In this case, all five (5) judges shall be elected from the USB.

SECTION 15. STUDENT COURT PROCEDURE

The Student Court shall form within a week of the accusation and shall take the responsibility to reach a decision within two weeks after its formation.

§1 A quorum for the meetings shall consist of three (3) Student Court judges and decisions shall be made by simple majority vote.

§2 Each judge shall have one vote.

193 SECTION 16. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

194 All Student Court judges must declare all possible conflicts of interest to Student Court prior to any hearing. In the interest of 195 impartiality, any judge that has a conflict of interest and also if a judge is involved in a trial before Student Court as the complainant
196 or as the accused, the respective judge shall remove themselves from the case and be replaced.

197 Article V

198 Student ^{S:}~~Representation~~ Delegates

199 The USG shall designate the ^{P:}~~Undergraduate Student Representatives (USRs)~~ Undergraduate Student Delegates (USDs)
200 in all official matters and University Committees. The USDs ^{S:}~~bring the perspective of Undergraduate Students~~ present
201 the USB's perspective and interests to the Academic Board as laid out in the Academic Constitution of Ja-202 cobs University Bremen.

203 SECTION 17. UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES WITH UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT REPRESENTATION

204 The Committees in the USG Executive Unit carry the task of delegating students to the following Univer-
205 sity Committees with Undergraduate Student Delegates. These USDs are mandated to join the respective 206 University Committee. ^{S:}~~The USD's don't need to be members of the respective USG executive committee.~~
207 In particular,

- 208 i. the Academic Affairs Committee is responsible for ^{S:}~~delegating students to~~ selecting delegates (and substi-209 tutes) for the:
210 (a) Academic Senate (AS),
211 (b) ^{S:}~~University Education Committee (UEC)~~ University Committee on Education (UCE),
212 (c) ^{S:}~~Quality Management (QM) Team~~ University Committee on Quality management (UCQM),^{S:}
213 (d) University Committee on Academic Integrity (UCAI),
214 (e) Teacher of the Year Delegates,
215 (f) Hiring Committees;
216 ii. the Campus Affairs Committee is responsible for ^{S:}~~delegating students to~~ selecting delegates for the:
217 (a) Equality Committee (EQ),
218 (b) Disciplinary Counsel (DC).

219 ^{S:}Only in exceptional cases, as decided by the USG Parliament, a student is allowed to be the Undergraduate 220 Student Delegate (excluding substitutes) of more than one University Committee of Jacobs University.

221 SECTION 18. DECISION-MAKING

222 The USDs shall be free to vote in the ^{P:}University Committees as their consciousness dictates. The Stu-
223 dent Parliament ^{S:}or the responsible Committee may however dictate the USDs' votes in their ^{P:}University
224 Committees, ^{S:}~~if a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Members of Parliament or respective USG Executive Committee decides so by~~ 225 a simple 2/3 majority vote. If unable to attend the official meetings, the USD is responsible for finding a 226 substitute.

227 SECTION 19. TASKS OF THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT DELEGATES

228 The Undergraduate Student Delegates shall:

- 229 i. attend all meetings of their ^{S:}~~delegated University Committee~~ University Committee,
230 ii. ^{S:}~~attend all meetings of the responsible USG Executive Committee~~ attend all meeting of the responsible USG Exec-
231 utive Committee, when decided so by the responsible Committee ^{Colin:} [Not necessary for instance of the UCAI
232 USDs],
233 iii. upon decision by the Parliament, additionally attend all meetings of the USG Parliament (as is the 234 case for the USD in the Academic Senate),
235 iv. present a summary of the ^{S:}work of the University Committee to the ^{S:}~~USG in the responsible Executive~~
236 Committee and/or the Parliament responsible Executive Committee and/or the Parliament, after each Uni-
237 versity Committee meeting or whenever asked to do so,
238 v. at their discretion, or when mandated by the responsible USG Committee or the Parliament, invite 239 other students as guests to the University Committee meeting.

Article VI General

S:

SECTION 20. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

^{S:}Each Committee shall:

- i. ^{S:}~~Maintaining~~ maintain a detailed documentation of the projects in progress and/or finished,
- ii. ^{S:}~~Creating a report to be presented to the USG Parliament during its weekly meetings~~ update the USG Parliament about its work during its weekly meetings. ^{S:}
- iii. work on any tasks assigned to them by the USG Parliament and keep the Parliament updated about any progress

P:

SECTION 21. CHANGE OF ^{S:}COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

Any changes related to responsibilities, tasks and duties of ^{S:}~~the~~ an Executive Committee as well as procedures and guidelines within ^{S:}~~the~~ that committee that are of a permanent nature must be approved by ^{S:}~~the~~ USG Parliament by a simple majority a simple majority vote of the USG Parliament, and those of temporary nature are at the discretion of the ^{S:}~~chair~~ Committee.

SECTION 22. COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBILITIES

One of the USG's core missions is to inform the USB.

§1 A regular task shall be a ^{S:}bi-monthly newsletter ^{RS:}~~of one page~~ with USG past, current and future projects relevant to the respective time-frame.

§2 Failure to do so for two months consecutively constitutes a valid reason for impeachment ^{S:}of the USG President.

SECTION 23. EXTERNAL OUTREACH POWER

The USG shall have the right to communicate with external parties, as stated by Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

§1 The USG members, as any student, shall have the right to contact any external bodies, only if they do so as individuals and not representing the USG. ^{RS:}

§2 ^{Colin:} The whole USG ^{RS:}~~(Parliament and Executive Unit)~~ has to be informed of any intention for external communication. ^{RS:} [This is bullshit.]

§3 ^{Colin:} A simple majority vote in the USG Parliament, among the USG members or a Student Opinion Decision may enact or prevent any external communication. [Also bullshit.]

§4 In particular, the USG President is the main ^{S:}person responsible for any external communication.

S:

SECTION 24. IMPEACHMENT OF USG MEMBERS

In case of a failure of any USG member to live up to his/her responsibilities with regards to the committee, the USG Parliament shall take appropriate actions, ranging from a reprimand to impeachment and/or a re-delegation of tasks.

^{RS:Colin:P:} After a successful impeachment of an ^{S:}~~Committee member~~ elected office, an additional member shall be elected or appointed as soon as possible to fill the open position. [redundant and should be removed]

SECTION 25. RESIGNATION AND IMPEACHMENT ^{S:}PROCEDURE

In the event of an ^{S:}elected USG Member resigning, not being able, not being willing to continue their tasks as a Member, or being successfully impeached, the USG Parliament will appoint an interim for the remaining period of the resigning member. ^{S:} For resignations and impeachments the following rules apply:

§1 Any elected member of the USG may resign provided that the USG is informed two (2) weeks before the intended date of resignation.

§2 Any member of the USG shall be impeached by either of the two: ^{S:}~~Two thirds (2/3) of the (other) elected members or referendum.~~ An absolute 2/3 majority vote within the Parliament or a referendum. Such a vote or referendum must clearly state the grounds for impeachment. Repeated ^{S:}unexcused absence ^{P:}of three (3) ^{RS:}~~consecutive~~ ^{P:}meetings or more and/or not accomplishing designated tasks automatically start the process of impeachment of a ^{S:}Committee or Parliament member:

i. The accused member and the impeacher (if any) have one (1) week time to ^{RS:}~~argument and~~ present their case.

ii. At the next USG Parliament meeting, the impeachment is voted upon.

§3 After resignation or impeachment, an officer may not run again for the same office within the term that the resignation ^{P:}or impeachment took place.

SECTION 26. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest must be declared and the involved members must be omitted from voting. In case of a tie in the voting procedure, the final decision is made jointly by the President, Vice-President and the respective Committee Head.

Article VII Elections

SECTION 27. ELECTIONS

The USG shall hold a general election twice a year, in particular:

- i. in first week of December for: ^{RS:}~~Vice-President,~~ Focus Area representatives, Treasurer^{S:}, 5 Members of Parliament (and for any open position),
- ii. in first week of May for: ^{RS:}~~President,~~ College representatives^{S:}, 5 Members of Parliament (and for any open position).

S:

SECTION 28. CANDIDATES ELIGIBILITY

The student shall be physically present in the respective semester of being in the office.

§1 Students in their second year of study who will spend the fifth semester abroad or will do an internship in their fifth semester may not run for an office in the USG in the May elections of their second year.

§2 Students in their third year of study or Foundation Year students who will not stay as bachelor students afterwards may not run as Focus area or College representatives in the May elections of their last year.

§3 Foundation Year students may affiliate themselves with a Focus area and are allowed to run as representative for that Focus area. In case, they have been offered admission for undergraduate studies and accepted that offer, this must be the Focus area of their future study program.

S:

SECTION 29. ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

^{S:}Only active members of an USG Executive Committee are eligible to run as a Member of Parliament.

For the election of the Members of Parliament, each student may distribute three (3) votes on candidates. Afterwards, the Members of Parliament are selected based on the outcome of the election as follows:

§1 Firstly, the candidates with most votes (except for a number of candidates equal to the number of Executive Committees) become Members of Parliament.

§2 All remaining positions are filled by the candidate reaching most votes from each Committee, which isn't already chosen as a Member of Parliament in §1. If there is no such candidate, the candidate with most votes (from any Committee) that isn't already chosen will be chosen as Member of Parliament.

SECTION 30. ELECTION OF THE COLLEGE AND FOCUS AREA REPRESENTATIVES

Any eligible student according to section 28 may run as a college or Focus area representative in their College or Focus area. Focus area and College representatives are elected by the USB from within their Focus area or College.

S:

SECTION 31. ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

In the beginning of each Fall semester, the newly elected Parliament shall elect a President and in the beginning of each Spring semester they shall elect a Vice-President amongst the Members of Parliament. Both President and Vice-President can be recalled any time with an absolute 2/3 majority vote in the Parliament. In this case, a new President must be elected immediately.

SECTION 32. TERM LENGTH

By default, all elected positions' terms within the USG shall be one year long.

§1 Exceptions ^{S: of the above, with one semester terms,} are:

- i. the candidates are third year students elected in the December election of their third year, and they are graduating at the end of their 6th semester,
- ii. the candidates are second year students elected in the December election of their second year, and they are going abroad during their 5th semester,
- iii. the candidates are running for an open position from a previous one-semester term, ^{S:Colin:}
- iv. the candidates receive the second highest number of votes in an election where two positions are to be filled,
- v. the candidates receive the second highest number of votes in an election where any Member of Parliament runs and is elected for a different position within the Parliament, [I don't understand these items: If somebody can explain it to me, I might reconsider.]
- vi. elected members choose to have a one semester term.

§2 The current members at the time of the election will remain in office until the end of the respective semester. After the elections, the newly elected members are already invited as standing guests in the meetings. They obtain voting power already at the beginning of the respective break (winter or summer break). In particular, this means that for the breaks between semesters, both previous and newly-elect students are members of the Parliament and thus have voting rights.

§3 A student can run for a position as many times as they wish.

PART B BYLAWS AND PROVISIONS

Article VIII General Provisions ^{S:for the Executive Committees}

SECTION 33. MEMBERSHIP

^{P:}Next to the Committee chair, the Committee consists of regular members, which are inaugurated by a vote of the Committee ^{S: after an application process to the respective Committee chair. Colin: [Should be left to the Committee to decide]} Memberships continue until disenrollment, unless the member resigns or is inactive (as decided by the respective committee). Members are either:

- i. active members ^{P:with voting rights within the Committee and the USG, who need to attend the mandatory Committee meetings}
- ii. passive members ^{P:as part of the mailing lists, with the option to join the meetings and engage in discussions, but without voting rights.}

SECTION 34. DECISION-MAKING AND BY-LAWS

A simple majority among the Committee members is required to reach a decision within any committee. ^{S:Conflicts of interest must be clearly declared.}

^{P:}The Committee's decision can be overruled only with a ^{S:fullsimple} unanimity of the USG Parliament. Each committee shall establish its own By-Laws, afterwards to be approved by the Parliament.

SECTION 35. ^{P:}THE CHAIR^{S:} OF A COMMITTEE

Students wishing to apply shall submit their application to the EC, which will collect the applications and prepare them for the election. Applications may consist of a letter of intent (one-pager), explaining the motivation for applying, past experience in student governments or university administration, an outline of an agenda they plan to pursue and proposed solutions, a strategy for engaging with the USG and other stakeholders.

SECTION 100. ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENTS

All elections shall be announced no later than two (2) days prior to the election, naming the options or candidates and functions they are running for, place, date, and time of the election. Such announcements shall take place through a notification sent to all student email accounts and by other platforms set by the USG via the EC.

S:

SECTION 101. CANDIDATES' ELIGIBILITY

The student shall be physically present in the respective semester of being in the office.

§1 Students in their third year of study may not run for an office in the USG in the May elections of their last year.

§2 Students in their second year of study who will spend the fifth semester abroad or will do an internship in their fifth semester may not run for an office in the USG in the May elections of their second year.

§3 Foundation Year students may only run for an office if they have been offered admission for undergraduate studies at Jacobs University and have accepted that offer.

§4 Only in exceptional cases, as decided by the USG Parliament, one student is allowed to be the Undergraduate Student Representatives ^S(excluding substitutes) of more than one official Committees of Jacobs University with student representatives (USR).^N: [

Maybe restrict chairs from being members of too many committees instead. Given the high number of USRs and substitutes, this might otherwise be too restrictive.]

SECTION 102. ANNOUNCING THE CANDIDATES

The EC is responsible for officially announcing the candidates.

§1 Candidates in or initiators of an election shall be allowed to have an official public profile using an online forum set-up by the EC, in order to present their ideas and opinions relevant to the election.

§2 A General Assembly (GA) organized by the EC will take place during the campaigning period, i.e. after the candidates announcement and before the voting starts.

§3 The purpose of the GA is to (physically) present the candidates, and to have a debate forum where any member of the Jacobs Community shall have the opportunity to ask questions, especially towards the candidates.

SECTION 103. CAMPAIGNING

Candidates shall have the right to democratically campaign in an appropriate and honest way. The Election Committee shall have the responsibility to more explicitly define the above, if requested by any student. All candidates agree and accept that:

- i. campaigning is only allowed during the campaign period,
- ii. slander is strictly prohibited,
- iii. in the case that candidates by their own wish shall need financial resources for campaigning, no funding from USG or Campus Life shall be used.

SECTION 104. CANDIDATES' MISCONDUCT

The election Committee shall have the right to establish additional regulations regarding public campaigning if deemed appropriate and impose sanctions/disqualify candidates. These additional regulations must comply with the Constitution of the USB.

S:

SECTION 105. VOTER ELIGIBILITY

Every member of the USB who has not lost his or her right to vote shall be eligible to vote in any election by the USB.

SECTION 106. ONLINE BALLOTS

The IT Department has the task to set up an election platform for online voting. Ballots have to be approved by the election Committee prior to the election. To be considered fit for being used in voting, a ballot has to contain all options presented in an equal way without discriminating any of them.

SECTION 107. VIOLATIONS

Violations of the election rules and regulations set forth in these by-laws may result in:

- i. the violator losing his or her status as a candidate in the election ^{S:}
- ii. the violator losing his or her status as eligible voter for future elections^{Colin: [wtf?]}
- iii. the election being invalid
- iv. new election results being issued.

Such cases shall be handled and decided upon by the EC.

SECTION 108. PUBLICATION OF RESULTS

Immediately after the vote-tallying is finished, the election Committee shall inform the secretariat about the results of the election. The secretariat shall then publish the results of the election, including the number of eligible voters, the number of votes cast, the number of valid votes, the number of invalid votes, the number of votes for each of the options or candidates, the number of votes for each of the options or candidates per college, and naming the winning option or candidate. This shall be done through a notification sent to all student email accounts and an announcement posted on the student forum.

SECTION 109. TAKING OFFICE

Once the newly-elected members of the USB Parliament are determined, the newly-elect members of the USB Parliament and the outgoing members take responsibility that the newly-elected members of the USB Parliament are trained in their respective tasks.

S: Meeting Policies and Student Voice

S: The provisions in this article exclusively apply to ?.

SECTION 110. CHAIR AND QUORUM

The chair of the USG Parliament meetings is the President, and if missing, the Vice-President. A meeting consists of at least a quorum of ^{P:}five Members of Parliament which have to include the President or the Vice-President.

SECTION 111. REGULAR MEETINGS

Meetings have to take place regularly and are open to the general public of Jacobs University, unless ^{P:}the Parliament needs to discuss confidential agenda items.

§1 Attendance of Members of Parliament is mandatory.

§2 The meetings have to be made public at least two days prior to the meeting.

§3 ^{P:}Confidential agenda items are discussed with elected or appointed members only. The USG Parliament may choose to include any other student ^{P:}if allowed and considered appropriate by a simple majority.

SECTION 112. DECISION-MAKING

Each member of the USG shall have one (1) vote in all matters. Decisions shall be made by a simple majority vote with at least fifty percent (50%) of all members voting. Voting takes place publicly and the names of the "ayes", "nays", and "abstentions" shall be recorded in the minutes. With a simple majority vote the USG may declare a secret vote (ballot) in which case only the number of votes shall be recorded.

SECTION 113. STUDENT VOTE

The USG may ask the USB via a Student Body Opinion procedure regarding USG decisions and future actions. However, the Student Body Opinion may be overruled with a full unanimity of the USG Parliament.

S: -

SECTION 114. EXTERNAL OUTREACH POWER

The USG shall have the right to communicate with external parties, as stated by Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

§1 The USG members, as any student, shall have the right to contact any external bodies, only if they do so as individuals and not representing the USG. ^{S:}

§2 The whole USG ^{S:}~~(Parliament and Executive Unit)~~ has to be informed of any intention for external communication. ^{Colin:} [This is bullshit.]

§3 A simple majority vote in the USG Parliament, among the USG members or a Student Opinion Decision may enact or prevent any external communication.

§4 In particular, the USG President is the main responsible for any external communication.

SECTION 115. COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBILITIES

One of the USG's core missions is to inform the USB.

§1 A regular task shall be a monthly newsletter of one page with USG past, current and future projects relevant to the respective time-frame.

§2 Failure to do so for two months consecutively constitutes a valid reason for impeachment.

SECTION 116. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest must be declared and the involved members must be omitted from voting. In case of a tie in the voting procedure, the final decision is made jointly by the President, Vice-President and the respective Committee Head.

SECTION 117. RESIGNATION AND IMPEACHMENT

In the event of an USG Member resigning, not being able, not being willing to continue their tasks as a Member, or being successfully impeached, the USG Parliament will appoint an interim for the remaining period of the resigning member.

§1 Any Member of the USG may resign provided that the USG is informed two (2) weeks before the intended date of resignation.

§2 Any member of the USG shall be impeached by either of the two: Two thirds (2/3) of the (other) elected members or referendum. Such a vote or referendum must clearly state the grounds for impeachment. Repeated ^{S:}unexcused absence ^{P:}of three (3) ^{RS:}consecutive ^{P:}meetings or more and/or not accomplishing designated tasks automatically start the process of impeachment of a member:

i. The accused member and the impeacher (if any) have one (1) week time to argument and present their case.

ii. At the next USG Parliament meeting, the impeachment is voted upon.

§3 After resignation or impeachment, an officer may not run again for the same office within the term that the resignation ^{P:}or impeachment took place.

^{S:} [Move to A. GENERAL]

Article XIX

Final provisions and policy changes

SECTION 118. CONSTITUTION SCOPE

The constitution of the USB at Jacobs University is of a general character. Any foregoing article of the constitution may be complemented, according to this constitution, with provisions issued by the USG.

§1 Part A of this document ^{S:}and the articles XV and XIX ^{S:}is form the ^{S:}explicit Constitution, ^{S:}that which has to be amended according to Article XIX, Section 119.
