Preamble

Acting as the voice of all students enrolled at Jacobs University, the Undergraduate Student Government (USG) shall actively work to improve the quality of life (in all its aspects) for the Undergraduate Student Body (USB), along with the university administration and community as a whole. The purpose of the Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is to work in the best interest of the student body.

According to the Jacobs University Academic Constitution, "the responsibilities of the Student Government include representing Students towards the respective bodies within as well as outside Jacobs University, serving as the link between Students and university authorities, administration or other groups on campus and actively contributing to the communication between those bodies, appointing all representatives of students, and ensuring continuity."

Believing in the right of self-governance, the Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall elect its representatives. Its Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is entirely student-run and politically independent of any administrative bodies.

Article I
The Undergraduate Student Government

The USG is formed in order to provide an official and representative organization to receive student questions and suggestions, investigate student problems and take appropriate action, provide the official voice through which the student opinion may be expressed, encourage the development of responsible student participation in the overall policy and decision making processes of the university community, foster an awareness of the students' role in the academic community, enhance the quality and scope of education at Jacobs University Bremen, provide means for responsible and effective participation in the organization of student affairs, and establish guidelines and this Constitution for the Undergraduate Student Government at Jacobs University.^{S:} The USG is a technocratic parliamentary democracy.

SECTION 1. ~~^{S:} EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE~~ LEGISLATIVE, EXECUTIVE AND JUDICIAL POWER

The Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall have the right to self-governance through the Undergraduate Student Government (USG), which is the main authority body of the USB, through:

- i. the USG Parliament (composed out of the Elected Offices), having the legislative power of the USB,
- ii. the USG Executive Unit (composed out of the Student Committees), having the executive power of the USB,
- iii. the USG Student Court, having the judicial power.

SECTION 2. POWER AND DUTY

The USG shall:

- i. inform the Student Body on recent, present and future endeavours,
- ii. organize activities involving the USB and maintain the student budget,
- iii. establish student Committees to deal with specific subjects, define their mandates, appoint their members, and monitor their activities,

- iv. meet regularly to discuss progress in student Committees and to address all issues on the respective agenda,
- v. at all times uphold and represent the interests of the USB,
- vi. enact legislation governing the conduct of the USB after consultation with the USB,
- vii. serve as liaison with the university administration, faculty, staff and college authorities.

SECTION 3. STUDENT RIGHTS

Each student shall have the right to:

§3 Public Relations ~~Manager~~ Department shall:

- i. be responsible for the image of the USG, and implicitly of the University,
- ii. cooperate with the Parliament on internal and external communication.

These roles shall be positions any student can apply for, and the USG shall elect or choose a candidate, i.e. this decision is to be carried out by USG members only.

Article IV Student Court

The Student Court shall be an independent body, responsible of checking and judging the legitimacy of the actions of the USG Parliament and Executive Unit. As it is may not have regular tasks, it shall be formed upon request by either the USB via a petition, the USG Parliament or the USG Executive Unit, in order to prosecute an accused body.

S:

SECTION 13. POWER AND DUTIES

The Student Court shall:

- i. at all points of time uphold this constitution in the interests of the USB,
- ii. interpret this constitution, by-laws, amendments and all subsequent legislation in the spirit of community standards,
- iii. mediate between two (2) or more parties of the USG or USB, at the request of any of the members involved,
- iv. determine in a trial, as specified in the by-laws on Student Court procedure, the guilt or innocence of any object of its jurisdiction who is accused of violations of this constitution and its by-laws, and assess penalties for such violations according to the by-laws on Student Court procedure,
- v. be permitted to defer a case to the next higher instance as specified in the by-laws on Student Court procedure, if the case is decided to be beyond its competence to judge,
- vi. review the decisions made and actions taken by the Student Parliament and ensure that they are made under the provisions of this constitution and its by-laws,
- vii. issue an evaluation of the Student Parliament's budget allocation, efficiency and progress on agenda points with recommendations for improvement, whenever asked to do so
- viii. recommend, at its discretion, changes in or additions to this constitution, its by-laws, or subsequent legislation,
- ix. be present at official Student Parliament meetings if requested by the Student Parliament or Government.

SECTION 14. STUDENT COURT FORMATION

The Student Court shall consist of five (5) judges directly elected.

- §1 In case the USG Parliament is accused of wrong doings, then the USG Executive Unit takes the task of forming the Student Court. Three (3) Judges shall be members of the USG Executive Unit, and two (2) judges shall be elected from the USB.
- §2 In case the USG Executive Unit is accused of wrong doings, then the USG Parliament takes the task of forming the Student Court. Three (3) Judges shall be members of the USG Parliament, and two (2) judges shall be elected from the USB.
- §3 In case both the USG Parliament and Executive Unit are accused of wrong doings, then the initiators of the petition against the two bodies takes the task of forming the Student Court. In this case, all five (5) judges shall be elected from the USB.

SECTION 15. STUDENT COURT PROCEDURE

The Student Court shall form within a week of the accusation and shall take the responsibility to reach a decision within two weeks after its formation.

- §1 A quorum for the meetings shall consist of three (3) Student Court judges and decisions shall be made by simple majority vote.
- §2 Each judge shall have one vote.

SECTION 16. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

All Student Court judges must declare all possible conflicts of interest to Student Court prior to any hearing. In the interest of impartiality, any judge that has a conflict of interest and also if a judge is involved in a trial before Student Court as the complainant or as the accused, the respective judge shall remove themselves from the case and be replaced.

Article V Student Delegates

The USG shall designate the Undergraduate Student Delegate (USD) in all official matters and University Committees. The USDs bring the perspective of Undergraduate Students to the Academic Board as laid out in the Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

193 SECTION 17. UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES WITH UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT REPRESENTATION

194 The Committees in the USG Executive Unit carry the task of delegating students to the following univer-195 sity committees with Undergraduate Student Delegates. These USDs are mandated to join the respective 196 university committee. ^{S:}The USD's don't need to be members of the respective USG executive committee.

197 In particular,

198 i. the Academic Affairs Committee is responsible for ^{S:}selecting delegates for^{RS:} ~~delegating students to~~ the:

199 (a) Academic Senate (AS),

200 (b) ~~^{S:}University Education Committee (UEC)~~, University Committee on Education (UCE),

201 (c) ~~^{S:}Quality Management (QM) Team~~ University Committee on Quality management (UCQM),^{S:} _

202 (d) University Committee on Academic Integrity (UCAI)

203 (e) Teacher of the Year Delegates,

204 (f) Hiring Committees;

205 ^{S:}Only in exceptional cases, as decided by the USG Parliament, one student is allowed to be the Un-
206 dergraduate Student Representatives (excluding substitutes) of more than one official Committees of 207 Jacobs University with student representatives (USR).

208 ii. the Campus Affairs Committee is responsible for ^{S:}selecting delegates for delegating students to the:

209 (a) Equality Committee (EQ).

210 SECTION 18. DECISION-MAKING

211 The USDs shall be free to vote in the ^{P:}university Committees as their consciousness dictates. The Student
212 Parliament may however dictate the USDs' votes in their ^{P:}university committees, if a two-thirds (2/3)
213 majority of the Members of Parliament or respective USG Executive Committee decides so. If unable to 214 attend the official meetings, the USR is responsible for finding a substitute.

215 SECTION 19. TASKS OF THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT DELEGATES

216 The Undergraduate Student Delegates shall:

217 i. attend all meetings of their delegated University Committee,

218 ii. attend all meetings of the responsible USG Executive Committee,

219 iii. upon decision by the Parliament, additionally attend all meetings of the USG Parliament (as is the 220 case for the USD in the Academic Senate),

221 iv. present a summary of the university Committee to the USG in the responsible Executive Committee
222 and/or the Parliament, after each University Committee meeting or whenever asked to do so,

223 v. at their discretion, or when mandated by the responsible USG Committee or the Parliament, invite 224 other students as guests to the University Committee meeting.

226 Article VI

227 General

228 ^{S:}

229 SECTION 20. IMPEACHMENT

230 In case of a failure of any Committee member (including the chair) to live up to his/her responsibilities
231 with regards to the committee, the USG Parliament shall take appropriate actions, ranging from a reprimand to impeachment and/or a re-delegation of tasks.

232 ^{P:} After a successful impeachment of a Committee member, an additional member shall be elected or ap-233 pointed as soon as possible to fill the open position.

235 ^{P:}

236 SECTION 21. CHANGE OF RESPONSIBILITIES

237 Any changes related to responsibilities, tasks and duties of the Committee as well as procedures and 238 guidelines within the committee that are of a permanent nature must be approved by the USG Parliament
239 by a simple majority, and those of temporary nature are at the discretion of the chair.

SECTION 22. EXTERNAL OUTREACH POWER

The USG shall have the right to communicate with external parties, as stated by Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

§1 The USG members, as any student, shall have the right to contact any external bodies, only if they do so as individuals and not representing the USG.

§2 The whole USG (Parliament and Executive Unit) has to be informed of any intention for external communication.

§3 A simple majority vote in the USG Parliament, among the USG members or a Student Opinion Decision may enact or prevent any external communication.

SECTION 23. COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBILITIES

One of the USG's core missions is to inform the USB.

§1 A regular task shall be a monthly newsletter of one page with USG past, current and future projects relevant to the respective time-frame.

SECTION 24. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest must be declared and the involved members must be omitted from voting. In case of a tie in the voting procedure, the final decision is made jointly by the President, Vice-President and the respective Committee Head.

SECTION 25. RESIGNATION AND IMPEACHMENT

In the event of an USG Member resigning, not being able, not being willing to continue their tasks as a Member, or being successfully impeached, the USG Parliament will appoint an interim for the remaining period of the resigning member.

§1 Any Member of the USG may resign provided that the USG is informed two (2) weeks before the intended date of resignation.

§2 Any member of the USG shall be impeached by either of the two: Two thirds (2/3) of the (other) elected members or referendum. Such a vote or referendum must clearly state the grounds for impeachment. Repeated ^{S:}unexcused absence ^{P:}of three \(3\) ^{RS:}~~consecutive~~ ^{P:}meetings or more and/or not accomplishing designated tasks automatically start the process of impeachment of a member:

i. The accused member and the impeacher (if any) have one (1) week time to argument and present their case.

ii. At the next USG Parliament meeting, the impeachment is voted upon.

§3 After resignation or impeachment, an officer may not run again for the same office within the term that the resignation ^{P:}or impeachment took place.

Article VII Elections

SECTION 26. ELECTIONS

The USG shall hold a general election twice a year, in particular:

i. in first week of December for: ^{RS:}~~Vice-President~~, Focus Area representatives, Treasurer^{S:}, 5 Members of Parliament (and for any open position),

ii. in first week of May for: ^{RS:}~~President~~, College representatives^{S:}, 5 Members of Parliament (and for any open position).

S:

SECTION 27. CANDIDATES ELIGIBILITY

The student shall be physically present in the respective semester of being in the office.

§1 Students in their second year of study who will spend the fifth semester abroad or will do an internship in their fifth semester may not run for an office in the USG in the May elections of their second year.

§2 Students in their third year of study may not run as Focus area or College representatives in the May elections of their last year.

§3 Foundation Year students can run and vote for the representative of their college. In case, they have been offered admission for undergraduate studies and accepted that offer, they may also vote for the Focus area representative of their future Focus area.

SECTION 28. ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

§: Only active members of an USG Executive Committee are eligible to run as a Member of Parliament.

For the election of the Member of Parliament, each student may distribute three (3) votes on candidates. Then, the Members of Parliament are selected based on the outcome of the election as follows:

§1 Firstly, the candidates with most votes (except for a number of candidates equal to the number of executive Committees) become Member of Parliament.

§2 All remaining positions are filled by the candidate reaching most votes from every Committee, which isn't already chosen as a Member of Parliament in §1.

SECTION 29. ELECTION OF THE COLLEGE AND FOCUS AREA REPRESENTATIVES

Any eligible student according to section 27 student may run as a college or Focus area representative in their College or Focus area. Focus area and College representatives are elected by the USB from within their Focus area or College.

SECTION 30. ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

In the beginning of each Fall semester, the newly elected Parliament shall elect a President and in the beginning of each Spring semester they shall elect a Vice-President amongst the Members of Parliament. Both President and Vice-President can be recalled any time with an absolute 2/3 majority in the Parliament. In this case, a new President must be elected immediately.

SECTION 31. TERM LENGTH

By default, all elected positions' terms within the USG shall be one year long.

§1 Exceptions of the above, with one-semester terms, are:

- i. the candidates are third year students elected in the December election of their third year, and they are graduating at the end of their 6th semester,
- ii. the candidates are second year students elected in the December election of their second year, and they are going abroad during their 5th semester,
- iii. the candidates are running for an open position from a previous one-semester term,
- iv. the candidates receive the second highest number of votes in an election where two positions are to be filled,
- v. the candidates receive the second highest number of votes in an election where any Member of Parliament runs and is elected for a different position within the Parliament,
- vi. elected members choose to have a one semester term.

§2 The current members at the time of the election will remain in office until the end of the respective semester. After the elections, the newly elected members are already invited as standing guests in the meetings. They obtain voting power already at the beginning of the respective break (winter or summer break). In particular, this means that for the breaks between semesters, both previous and newly-elect students are members of the Parliament and thus have voting rights.

333 PART B
334 BYLAWS AND PROVISIONS

335 Article VIII
336 General Provisions

337 SECTION 32. DECISION-MAKING AND BY-LAWS

338 A simple majority among the Committee members is required to reach a decision within any committee.
339 ^{S:}Conflicts of interest must be clearly declared.
340 ^{P:}The Committee's decision can be overruled only with a ^{S:}full simple unanimity of the USG Parliament. Each 341 committee shall establish its own By-Laws, afterwards to be approved by the Parliament.

342 SECTION 33. MEMBERSHIP

343 ^{P:}Next to the Committee chair, the Committee consists of regular members, which are inaugurated by 344 vote of the Committee after an application process to the respective Committee chair. Memberships con-
345 tinue until disenrollment, unless the member resigns or is inactive (as decided by the respective committee).
346 Members are either:
347 i. active members ^{P:}with voting rights within the Committee and the USG, who need to attend the 348 mandatory Committee meetings
349 ii. passive members ^{P:}as part of the mailing lists, with the option to join the meetings and engage in 350 discussions, but without voting rights.

351 ^{S:}

352 SECTION 34. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

- 353
354 i. Maintaining a detailed documentation of the projects in progress and/or finished, 355 ii. Creating a report to be presented to the USG Parliament during its weekly meetings.

356 ^{S:}

357 SECTION 35. GENERAL WORKINGS OF THE SUBCOMMITTEES

358 Subcommittees can be created within the Committee in order to foster the work with the diverse range
359 of issues the Committee is interested in. ^{N:} [Deleted the suggested phrase: The current tasks and responsibilities are:] ^{S:}
360 §1 Membership of any of these subcommittees is fluid and can be freely changed.
361 §2 A Committee member can freely decide to be in any number of such subcommittees.
362 §3 The subcommittee is free to accept any non-committee member into its membership.
363 §4 The heads of the subcommittees are decided internally by the interested members

364 SECTION 36. ^{P:}THE CHAIR ^{S:} OF A COMMITTEE

365 ^{S:}~~The Chair usually is an elected member of the Parliament.~~ Each semester after the USG elections each committee
366 shall elect its chair amongst its members. The chair can, but doesn't need to be a Member of Parliament.
367 In case the chair is not a Member of Parliament, they will be invited as a standing guest to the Parliament
368 to represent their committee. They are given the right to propose agenda points (including ad-hoc agenda 369 points and comments) and they will be included in Parliament internal communications, however they are 370 not given voting rights. The chair takes full accountability and responsibility for the work of and within 371 the committee and, thus, it shall be the duty of the chair to ensure that all committee tasks are being duly 372 implemented. Each committee ^{S:}~~defines~~ may define additional duties.

373 SECTION 37. ^{P:}POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CHAIR

374 The Chair is a leading figure for their Committee. They shall ensure the following.
375 §1 Communication with the USG Parliament. The chair shall ^{P:}attend the USG Parliament meetings,
376 represent and communicate relevant projects and suggestions of the Committee work to the USG
377 Parliament and vice versa.
378 §2 The chairs shall preside over the meetings of their Committee.

§3 At the beginning of each year, the chair must present a project list for the respective task and how to accomplish them. The chair shall write Committee reports if required by the USG.

§4 Establishment of the Committee. Upon assignment of the committee the chair shall nominate committee members.

§5 It is at the discretion of the chair to invite additional members to attend their respective official meetings. If unable to attend, the chair is responsible for finding substitutes.

§6 The chair shall provide general advice concerning the Committee's work for the succeeding committee chair, specifying the activities which were pursued and completed, stating any pending activities, and including suggestions for improved performance in the committee in the next academic year. The chair shall ensure that all relevant documents and materials are handed over to the succeeding committee chair.

§7 At any time during the semester the chair of a Committee, may be recalled by an absolute 2/3 majority of members. In this case, a new chair must be elected immediately.

i. campaigning is only allowed during the campaign period,

ii. slander is strictly prohibited,

iii. in the case that candidates by their own wish shall need financial resources for campaigning, no funding from USG or Campus Life shall be used.

SECTION 104. CANDIDATES' MISCONDUCT

The election Committee shall have the right to establish additional regulations regarding public campaigning if deemed appropriate and impose sanctions/disqualify candidates. These additional regulations must comply with the Constitution of the USB.

S: Every member of the USB who has not lost his or her right to vote shall be eligible to vote in any election by the USB.

SECTION 105. VOTER ELIGIBILITY

SECTION 106. ONLINE BALLOTS

The IT Department has the task to set up an election platform for online voting. Ballots have to be approved by the election Committee prior to the election. To be considered fit for being used in voting, a ballot has to contain all options presented in an equal way without discriminating any of them.

SECTION 107. VIOLATIONS

Violations of the election rules and regulations set forth in these by-laws may result in:

i. the violator losing his or her status as a candidate in the election^{S:}

ii. the violator losing his or her status as eligible voter for future elections^{Colin:} [wtf?]

iii. the election being invalid

iv. new election results being issued.
Such cases shall be handled and decided upon by the EC.

SECTION 108. PUBLICATION OF RESULTS

Immediately after the vote-tallying is finished, the election Committee shall inform the secretariat about the results of the election. The secretariat shall then publish the results of the election, including the number of eligible voters, the number of votes cast, the number of valid votes, the number of invalid votes, the number of votes for each of the options or candidates, the number of votes for each of the options or candidates per college, and naming the winning option or candidate. This shall be done through a notification sent to all student email accounts and an announcement posted on the student forum.

SECTION 109. TAKING OFFICE

Once the newly-elected members of the USG Parliament are determined, the newly-elect members of the USG Parliament and the outgoing members take responsibility that the newly-elected members of the USG Parliament are trained in their respective tasks.

Article XVIII

S: Meeting Policies and Student Voice

S: The provisions in this article exclusively apply to ?.

SECTION 110. CHAIR AND QUORUM

The chair of the USG Parliament meetings is the President, and if missing, the Vice-President. A meeting consists of at least a quorum of P: five Members of Parliament which have to include the President or the Vice-President.

SECTION 111. REGULAR MEETINGS

Meetings have to take place regularly and are open to the general public of Jacobs University, unless P: the Parliament needs to discuss confidential agenda items.

§1 Attendance of Members of Parliament is mandatory.

§2 The meetings have to be made public at least two days prior to the meeting.

§3 P: Confidential agenda items are discussed with elected or appointed members only. The USG Parliament may choose to include any other student P: if allowed and considered appropriate by a simple majority.

SECTION 112. DECISION-MAKING

Each member of the USG shall have one (1) vote in all matters. Decisions shall be made by a simple majority vote with at least fifty percent (50%) of all members voting. Voting takes place publicly and the names of the "ayes", "nays", and "abstentions" shall be recorded in the minutes. With a simple majority vote the USG may declare a secret vote (ballot) in which case only the number of votes shall be recorded.

SECTION 113. STUDENT VOTE

The USG may ask the USB via a Student Body Opinion procedure regarding USG decisions and future actions. However, the Student Body Opinion may be overruled with a full unanimity of the USG Parliament.

SECTION 114. EXTERNAL OUTREACH POWER

The USG shall have the right to communicate with external parties, as stated by Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

§1 The USG members, as any student, shall have the right to contact any external bodies, only if they do so as individuals and not representing the USG. S:

969 §2 The whole USG ^{S:}~~(Parliament and Executive Unit)~~ has to be informed of any intention for external communication. ^{Colin:} [This 970 is bullshit.]
971 §3 A simple majority vote in the USG Parliament, among the USG members or a Student Opinion Decision may enact or prevent 972 any external communication.
973 §4 In particular, the USG President is the main responsible for any external communication.

974 SECTION 115. COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBILITIES

975 One of the USG's core missions is to inform the USB.
976 §1 A regular task shall be a monthly newsletter of one page with USG past, current and future projects relevant to the respective 977 time-frame.
978 §2 Failure to do so for two months consecutively constitutes a valid reason for impeachment.

979 SECTION 116. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

980 Conflicts of interest must be declared and the involved members must be omitted from voting. In case of a tie in the voting
981 procedure, the final decision is made jointly by the President, Vice-President and the respective Committee Head.

982 SECTION 117. RESIGNATION AND IMPEACHMENT

983 In the event of an USG Member resigning, not being able, not being willing to continue their tasks as a Member, or being successfully
984 impeached, the USG Parliament will appoint an interim for the remaining period of the resigning member.

985 §1 Any Member of the USG may resign provided that the USG is informed two (2) weeks before the intended date of resignation.
986 §2 Any member of the USG shall be impeached by either of the two: Two thirds (2/3) of the (other) elected members or referen-
987 dum. Such a vote or referendum must clearly state the grounds for impeachment. Repeated ^{S:}~~unexcused~~ absence ^{P:}~~of three (3)~~
988 ^{RS:}~~consecutive~~ ^{P:}~~meetings or more~~ and/or not accomplishing designated tasks automatically start the process of impeachment 989 of a member:
990 i. The accused member and the impeacher (if any) have one (1) week time to argument and present their case.
991 ii. At the next USG Parliament meeting, the impeachment is voted upon.

992 §3 After resignation or impeachment, an officer may not run again for the same office within the term that the resignation ^{P:}~~or~~ 993 ~~impeachment took place~~.

995 Article XIX 996 Final provisions and policy changes

997 SECTION 118. CONSTITUTION SCOPE

998 The constitution of the USB at Jacobs University is of a general character. Any foregoing article of the 999 constitution may be complemented, according to this constitution, with provisions issued by the USG.

1000 §1 Part A of this document^{S:} and the articles XV and XIX ^{S:}is form the explicit Constitution, that has to be 1001 amended according to Article XIX, Section 119.

1002 §2 ^{S:}Part B represents By-Laws and secondary provisions, that can be changed internally by the USG
1003 Parliament according to Article XIX, Section 67

1004 §3 ^{S:}Part C represents complementary provisions, definitions and guidelines.

1005 SECTION 119. AMENDMENTS AND REFERENDUM

1006 Amendments of this constitution or the ratification of a new constitution can only be passed in a success-
1007 ful referendum by the USB. Before the organization of a referendum, any new constitution or amendments
1008 to the old constitution must be introduced via a general assembly to the USB.

1009 SECTION 120. OVERRULING

1010 The provisions of this constitution shall not violate in any way general provisions of German, European,
1011 or international law as far as applicable. If such provisions exist, they shall be immediately revoked and/or 1012 amended.

1013 SECTION 121. INTERNAL CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS OF BY-LAWS

1014 §1 Existing by-laws and provisions can be amended or replaced and new ones can be introduced only 1015 with a two-thirds (2/3) majority of members voting in favour.

1016 §2 If the name of a document, Committee, unit, or office mentioned in this constitution changes without 1017 the change of the respective entity violating this constitution, this document may be updated by 1018 substitutions of the old name with the new name upon approval of the USG by a simple majority 1019 vote.

1020 SECTION 122. ANNOUNCING CHANGES

1021 If additional provisions are issued in form of complementary by-laws, the publicly available text of this 1022 constitution must clearly mention the names and articles of the relevant by-laws.

1023 SECTION 123. TERMINATION

1024 This constitution shall expire upon ratification of a new constitution by the USB.

Version 1.1 of this constitution is proposed for amendment. This document has been last edited on November 4, 2018.
