1 PART A
2 CONSTITUTION OF THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT BODY

3 Parliament approved additions.
4 Suggested additions.
5 replacements

6 Preamble

7 Acting as the voice of all students enrolled at Jacobs University, the Undergraduate Student Government
8 (USG) shall actively work to improve the quality of life (in all its aspects) for the Undergraduate Student
9 Body (USB), along with the university administration and community as a whole. The purpose of the 10 Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is to work in the best interest of the student body.

11 According to the Jacobs University Academic Constitution, "the responsibilities of the Student Government
12 include representing Students towards the respective bodies within as well as outside Jacobs University,
13 serving as the link between Students and university authorities, administration or other groups on campus
14 and actively contributing to the communication between those bodies, appointing all representatives of 15 students, and ensuring continuity."

16 Believing in the right of self-governance, the Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall elect its representa-
17 tives. Its Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is entirely student-run and politically independent of 18 any administrative bodies.

19 Article I
20 The Undergraduate Student Government

21 The USG is formed in order to provide an official and representative organization to receive student ques-
22 tions and suggestions, investigate student problems and take appropriate action, provide the official voice
23 through which the student opinion may be expressed, encourage the development of responsible student 24 participation in the overall policy and decision making processes of the university community, foster an 25 awareness of the students' role in the academic community, enhance the quality and scope of education at 26 Jacobs University Bremen, provide means for responsible and effective participation in the organization of 27 student affairs, and establish guidelines and this Constitution for the Undergraduate Student Government
28 at Jacobs University. The USG is a technocratic parliamentary democracy.

29 SECTION 1. EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE AND JUDICIAL POWER

30 The Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall have the right to self-governance through the Undergrad-
31 uate Student Government (USG), which is the main authority body of the USB, through:

- 32 i. the USG Executive Unit (composed out of the Student Committees), having the executive power of 33 the USB,
34 ii. the USG Parliament (composed out of the Elected Offices), having the legislative power of the USB,
35 iii. the USG Student Court, having the judicial power.

36 SECTION 2. POWER AND DUTY

37 The USG shall:

- 38 i. inform the Student Body on recent, present and future endeavours,
39 ii. organize activities involving the USB and maintain the student budget,
40 iii. establish student Committees to deal with specific subjects, define their mandates, appoint their mem-
41 bers, and monitor their activities,
42 iv. meet regularly to discuss progress in student Committees and to address all issues on the respective 43 agenda,
44 v. at all times uphold and represent the interests of the USB,
45 vi. enact legislation governing the conduct of the USB after consultation with the USB,

vii. serve as liaison with the university administration, faculty, staff and college authorities.

SECTION 3. STUDENT RIGHTS

Each student shall have the right to:

- i. vote in popular elections,
- ii.
- iii. apply to be part of a Committee,
- iv. affiliate themselves with a college of her/his choice, in case of living off-campus,
- v. affiliate themselves with a focus area of her/his choice, for Foundation Year students,
- vi. start a student club and to join any club (regardless of background), according to the requirements set by the Campus Life and the by-laws of the USG,
- vii. initiate a popular initiative or petition to suggest legislative proposals or any kind of action to the USG.

SECTION 4. STUDENT DUTIES

Each student shall have the duty and obligation to:

- i. act in accordance with the provisions stipulated by the constitution and the active by-laws that support it,
- ii. accept final decisions of the Disciplinary Board,
- iii. respect decisions taken by the USG as long as they are in accordance with this constitution.

Article II

The Undergraduate Student Executive Unit

SECTION 5. THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT EXECUTIVE UNIT STRUCTURE

The Undergraduate Student Executive Unit Structure shall have the following Committees and departments:

- i. President's Office, consisting of the President and the Vice-President,
- ii. Academic Affairs,
- iii. Campus Affairs,
- iv. Financial Affairs,
- v. International Affairs,
- vi. Support structures: Secretaries, IT Department, PR.

The chairs for the Executive Committees are approved with a simple majority within the USG Parliament.

SECTION 6. THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

The President's Office shall be the main representative figure of the USB and the USG and be responsible for the coordination of all activities of the USG and its departments, having the following recurring tasks:

- i. inform the USB and the USG about matters falling within their competence, especially when requested by these bodies,
- ii. be the main responsible of the USG's actions and oversee its structure and inner workings,
- iii. oversee the USG's public relations externally, and coordinate the USG's presentation in the media, both electronically and printed,
- iv. supervise the appointment and/or selection of the supportive positions and infrastructure.

It defines its own Bylaws.

SECTION 7. THE ACADEMIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Academic Affairs Committee (AAC) shall be responsible for the representation of the undergraduate USB in all Academic University Committees and serve as a point of contact for students regarding all academic matters relevant to education (that is, teaching, learning and assessment), having the responsibilities outlined in its Bylaws.

91 SECTION 8. THE CAMPUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

92 The Campus Affairs Committee (CAC) shall be responsible for the representation of the USB in all
93 university-enacted-structures that affect student life. Its mission is to ameliorate student experience while 94 at Jacobs University and to serve as a point of contact for students regarding all non-academic matters.

95 SECTION 9. THE FINANCIAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

96 The Financial Affairs Committee shall be responsible for all USG matters pertaining to finances and 97 strive to direct the students' budget in ways to benefit the student body. Its Bylaws define clear guidelines,
98 funding criteria and procedures.

99 SECTION 10. THE INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

100 The International Affairs Committee shall be responsible for all USG matters pertaining to cooperations
101 accross universities and student bodies and try to increase students internship and study abroad opportu-
102 nities.

103 SECTION 11. SUPPORT STRUCTURES

104 The Support structures shall foster the inner workings of the USG and help both the USB Parliament
105 and Executive Unit in their actions. Further roles can be defined and must be publicly justiiied, then they 106 can be attributed to USG members depending on the respective need, in addition to the support structures
107 explicitly listed below:

108 §1 The Secretaries shall:

- 109 i. set the Agenda for USG meetings,
- 110 ii. be responsible of communication and documents, such as agenda and minutes,
- 111 iii. organize tasks, check for completion;

112 §2 The IT Department shall:

- 113 i. be responsible for the maintenance of the USG related websites and for the updated information,
- 114 ii. be the link between the USB and the IT department of the University.

115 §3 Public Relations Manager shall:

- 116 i. be responsible for the image of the USG, and implicitly of the University,
- 117 ii. cooperate with the Parliament on internal and external communication.

118 These roles shall be positions any student can apply for, and the USG shall elect or choose a candidate, i.e.
119 this decision is to be carried out by USG members only.

120 Article III
121 USG Parliament

122 The USG Parliament shall have the role to coordinate the USG, to explicitly define its tasks and to dis-
123 tribute workload. The USB Executive Unit shall fulfill the proposals of the USG Parliament, upon common 124 agreement between the two bodies.

125 SECTION 12. STRUCTURE AND ELECTED OFFICES

126 The Undergraduate Parliament shall be composed of ten (10) elected Members of Parliament: In order
127 to ensure fair representation of different interest groups on campus, there are additionally the following 128 elected offices:

- | | |
|--|--|
| 129 i. College Representative: Krupp | 133 v. Focus Area Representative: Diversity |
| 130 ii. College Representative: Mercator | 134 vi. Focus Area Representative: Health |
| 131 iii. College Representative: College 3 | 135 vii. Focus Area Representative: Mobility |
| 132 iv. College Representative: Nordmetall | |

136 The college representatives become members of the Campus Affairs Committee and the Focus area repre-
137 sentatives become member of the Academic Affairs Committee, as detailed in the respective bylaws.

138 SECTION 13. ELECTIONS

139 The USG shall hold a general election twice a year, in particular:

- 140 i. in first week of December for: Focus Area representatives, Treasurer, 5 Members of Parliament (and 141 for any open position),
142 ii. in first week of May for: College representatives, 5 Members of Parliament (and for any open posi-143 tion).

144 SECTION 14. ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

145 Only active members of an USG Executive Committee are eligible to run as a Member of Parliament. For 146 the election of the Member of Parliament, each student may distribute three (3) votes on candidates. Then,
147 the Members of Parliament are selected based on the outcome of the election as follows:

148 §1 Firstly, the candidates with most votes (except for a number of candidates equal to the number of 149 executive Committees) become Member of Parliament.

150 §2 All remaining positions are filled by the candidate reaching most votes from every Committee, which 151 isn't already chosen as a Member of Parliament in §1.

152 SECTION 15. ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

153 In the beginning of each Fall semester, the newly elected Parliament shall elect a President and in the 154 beginning of each Spring semester they shall elect a Vice-President amongst the Members of Parliament.
155 Both President and Vice-President can be recalled any time with an absolute 2/3 majority in the Parliament.
156 In this case, a new President must be elected immediately.

157 SECTION 16. TERM LENGTH

158 By default, all elected positions' terms within the USG shall be one year long.

159 §1 Exceptions of the above, with one-semester terms, are:

- 160 i. the candidates are third year students elected in the December election of their third year, and 161 they are graduating at the end of their 6th semester,
162 ii. the candidates are second year students elected in the December election of their second year,
163 and they are going abroad during their 5th semester,
164 iii. the candidates are running for an open position from a previous one-semester term,
165 iv. the candidates receive the second highest number of votes in an election where two positions are 166 to be filled,
167 v. the candidates receive the second highest number of votes in an election where any Member of 168 Parliament runs and is elected for a different position within the Parliament, 169 vi. elected members choose to have a one semester term.

170 §2 The current members at the time of the election will remain in office until the end of the respective 171 semester. After the elections, the newly elected members are already invited as standing guests in 172 the meetings. They obtain voting power already at the beginning of the respective break (winter or 173 summer break). In particular, this means that for the breaks between semesters, both previous and
174 newly-elect students are members of the Parliament and thus have voting rights.

175 §3 A student can run for a position as many times as they wish.

176 Article IV
177 Student Court

178 The Student Court shall be an independent body, responsible of checking and judging the legitimacy of the 179 actions of the USG Parliament and Executive Unit. As it is may not have regular tasks, it shall be formed
180 upon request by either the USB via a petition, the USG Parliament or the USG Executive Unit, in order to 181 prosecute an accused body.

182 SECTION 17. POWER AND DUTIES

183 The Student Court shall:

- 184 i. at all points of time uphold this constitution in the interests of the USB,

- ii. interpret this constitution, by-laws, amendments and all subsequent legislation in the spirit of community standards,
- iii. mediate between two (2) or more parties of the USG or USB, at the request of any of the members involved,
- iv. determine in a trial, as specified in the by-laws on Student Court procedure, the guilt or innocence of any object of its jurisdiction who is accused of violations of this constitution and its by-laws, and assess penalties for such violations according to the by-laws on Student Court procedure,
- v. be permitted to defer a case to the next higher instance as specified in the by-laws on Student Court procedure, if the case is decided to be beyond its competence to judge,
- vi. review the decisions made and actions taken by the Student Parliament and ensure that they are made under the provisions of this constitution and its by-laws,
- vii. issue an evaluation of the Student Parliament's budget allocation, efficiency and progress on agenda points with recommendations for improvement, whenever asked to do so
- viii. recommend, at its discretion, changes in or additions to this constitution, its by-laws, or subsequent legislation,
- ix. be present at official Student Parliament meetings if requested by the Student Parliament or Government.

SECTION 18. STUDENT COURT FORMATION

The Student Court shall consist of five (5) judges directly elected.

§1 In case the USG Parliament is accused of wrong doings, then the USG Executive Unit takes the task of forming the Student Court. Three (3) Judges shall be members of the USG Executive Unit, and two (2) judges shall be elected from the USB.

§2 In case the USG Executive Unit is accused of wrong doings, then the USG Parliament takes the task of forming the Student Court. Three (3) Judges shall be members of the USG Parliament, and two (2) judges shall be elected from the USB.

§3 In case both the USG Parliament and Executive Unit are accused of wrong doings, then the initiators of the petition against the two bodies takes the task of forming the Student Court. In this case, all five (5) judges shall be elected from the USB.

SECTION 19. STUDENT COURT PROCEDURE

The Student Court shall form within a week of the accusation and shall take the responsibility to reach a decision within two weeks after its formation.

§1 A quorum for the meetings shall consist of three (3) Student Court judges and decisions shall be made by simple majority vote.

§2 Each judge shall have one vote.

SECTION 20. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

All Student Court judges must declare all possible conflicts of interest to Student Court prior to any hearing. In the interest of impartiality, any judge that has a conflict of interest and also if a judge is involved in a trial before Student Court as the complainant or as the accused, the respective judge shall remove themselves from the case and be replaced.

Article V Student Delegates

The USG shall designate the Undergraduate Student Delegate (USD) in all official matters and University Committees. The USDs bring the perspective of Undergraduate Students to the Academic Board as laid out in the Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

SECTION 21. UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES WITH UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT REPRESENTATION

The Committees in the USG Executive Unit carry the task of delegating students to the following university committees with Undergraduate Student Delegates. These USDs are mandated to join the respective university committee. The USD's don't need to be members of the respective USG executive committee. In particular,

- i. the Academic Affairs Committee is responsible for selecting delegates for the:
 - (a) Academic Senate (AS),
 - (b) University Committee on Education (UCE),
 - (c) University Committee on Quality management (UCQM),
 - (d) University Committee on Academic Integrity (UCAI)
 - (e) Teacher of the Year Delegates,
 - (f) Hiring Committees;
- ii. the Campus Affairs Committee is responsible for delegating students to the:
 - (a) Equality Committee (EQ).

SECTION 22. DECISION-MAKING

The USDs shall be free to vote in the university Committees as their consciousness dictates. The Student Parliament may however dictate the USDs' votes in their university committees, if a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Members of Parliament or respective USG Executive Committee decides so. If unable to attend the official meetings, the USR is responsible for finding a substitute.

SECTION 23. TASKS OF THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT DELEGATES

The Undergraduate Student Delegates shall:

- i. attend all meetings of their delegated University Committee,
- ii. attend all meetings of the responsible USG Executive Committee,
- iii. upon decision by the Parliament, additionally attend all meetings of the USG Parliament (as is the case for the USD in the Academic Senate),
- iv. present a summary of the university Committee to the USG in the responsible Executive Committee and/or the Parliament, after each University Committee meeting or whenever asked to do so,
- v. at their discretion, or when mandated by the responsible USG Committee or the Parliament, invite other students as guests to the University Committee meeting.

Article VI General

SECTION 24. IMPEACHMENT

In case of a failure of any Committee member (including the chair) to live up to his/her responsibilities with regards to the committee, the USG Parliament shall take appropriate actions, ranging from a reprimand to impeachment and/or a re-delegation of tasks.

After a successful impeachment of a Committee member, an additional member shall be elected or appointed as soon as possible to fill the open position.

SECTION 25. CHANGE OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Any changes related to responsibilities, tasks and duties of the Committee as well as procedures and guidelines within the committee that are of a permanent nature must be approved by the USG Parliament by a simple majority, and those of temporary nature are at the discretion of the chair.

SECTION 26. EXTERNAL OUTREACH POWER

The USG shall have the right to communicate with external parties, as stated by Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

§1 The USG members, as any student, shall have the right to contact any external bodies, only if they do so as individuals and not representing the USG.

§2 The whole USG (Parliament and Executive Unit) has to be informed of any intention for external communication.

§3 A simple majority vote in the USG Parliament, among the USG members or a Student Opinion Decision may enact or prevent any external communication.

§4 In particular, the USG President is the main responsible for any external communication.

SECTION 27. COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBILITIES

One of the USG's core missions is to inform the USB.

§1 A regular task shall be a monthly newsletter of one page with USG past, current and future projects relevant to the respective time-frame.

§2 Failure to do so for two months consecutively constitutes a valid reason for impeachment.

SECTION 28. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest must be declared and the involved members must be omitted from voting. In case of a tie in the voting procedure, the final decision is made jointly by the President, Vice-President and the respective Committee Head.

SECTION 29. RESIGNATION AND IMPEACHMENT

In the event of an USG Member resigning, not being able, not being willing to continue their tasks as a Member, or being successfully impeached, the USB Parliament will appoint an interim for the remaining period of the resigning member.

§1 Any Member of the USG may resign provided that the USG is informed two (2) weeks before the intended date of resignation.

§2 Any member of the USG shall be impeached by either of the two: Two thirds (2/3) of the (other) elected members or referendum. Such a vote or referendum must clearly state the grounds for impeachment. Repeated unexcused absence of three (3) meetings or more and/or not accomplishing designated tasks automatically start the process of impeachment of a member:

i. The accused member and the impeacher (if any) have one (1) week time to argument and present their case.

ii. At the next USB Parliament meeting, the impeachment is voted upon.

§3 After resignation or impeachment, an officer may not run again for the same office within the term that the resignation or impeachment took place.

PART B BYLAWS AND PROVISIONS

Article VII General Provisions

SECTION 30. DECISION-MAKING AND BY-LAWS

A simple majority among the Committee members is required to reach a decision within any committee. Conflicts of interest must be clearly declared.

The Committee's decision can be overruled only with a simple unanimity of the USB Parliament. Each committee shall establish its own By-Laws, afterwards to be approved by the Parliament.

SECTION 31. MEMBERSHIP

Next to the Committee chair, the Committee consists of regular members, which are inaugurated by vote of the Committee after an application process to the respective Committee chair. Memberships continue until disenrollment, unless the member resigns or is inactive (as decided by the respective committee). Members are either:

i. active members with voting rights within the Committee and the USG, who need to attend the mandatory Committee meetings

ii. passive members as part of the mailing lists, with the option to join the meetings and engage in discussions, but without voting rights.

SECTION 32. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

- i. Maintaining a detailed documentation of the projects in progress and/or finished,
- ii. Creating a report to be presented to the USG Parliament during its weekly meetings.

SECTION 33. GENERAL WORKINGS OF THE SUBCOMMITTEES

Subcommittees can be created within the Committee in order to foster the work with the diverse range of issues the Committee is interested in.

§1 Membership of any of these subcommittees is fluid and can be freely changed.

§2 A Committee member can freely decide to be in any number of such subcommittees.

§3 The subcommittee is free to accept any non-committee member into its membership.

§4 The heads of the subcommittees are decided internally by the interested members

SECTION 34. THE CHAIR OF A COMMITTEE

Each semester after the USG elections each committee shall elect its chair amongst its members. The chair can, but doesn't need to be a Member of Parliament. In case the chair is not a Member of Parliament, they will be invited as a standing guest to the Parliament to represent their committee. They are given the right to propose agenda points (including ad-hoc agenda points and comments) and they will be included in Parliament internal communications, however they are not given voting rights. The chair takes full accountability and responsibility for the work of and within the committee and, thus, it shall be the duty of the chair to ensure that all committee tasks are being duly implemented. Each committee may define additional duties.

SECTION 35. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CHAIR

The Chair is a leading figure for their Committee. They shall ensure the following.

§1 Communication with the USG Parliament. The chair shall attend the USG Parliament meetings, represent and communicate relevant projects and suggestions of the Committee work to the USG Parliament and vice versa.

§2 The chairs shall preside over the meetings of their Committee.

§3 At the beginning of each year, the chair must present a project list for the respective task and how to accomplish them. The chair shall write Committee reports if required by the USG.

§4 Establishment of the Committee. Upon assignment of the committee the chair shall nominate committee members.

§5 It is at the discretion of the chair to invite additional members to attend their respective official meetings. If unable to attend, the chair is responsible for finding substitutes.

§6 The chair shall provide general advice concerning the Committee's work for the succeeding committee chair, specifying the activities which were pursued and completed, stating any pending activities, and including suggestions for improved performance in the committee in the next academic year. The chair shall ensure that all relevant documents and materials are handed over to the succeeding committee chair.

§7 At any time during the semester the chair of a Committee, may be recalled by an absolute 2/3 majority of members. In this case, a new chair must be elected immediately.

SECTION 36. MODERATOR OF A COMMITTEE

The chair may yield their moderation right to another Committee member, either for a specific meeting or for the entire semester. The moderator may yield the moderation right to a different committee member at any time during a meeting for:

- i. the discussion of an agenda point,
- ii. the introduction of a proposal,
- iii. the remaining meeting.

Article VIII
Parliament By-Laws

SECTION 37. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The individual members of the USG Parliament shall:

- i. attend the weekly USG meetings,
- ii. proactively strive for the betterment of student representation within the University,
- iii. be familiar with the workings of the USG and Jacobs University,
- iv. participate in voting and decision-making, aware of consequences for different constituencies
- v. participate in at least of the USG Executive Committees, or supporting structures

SECTION 38. CHAIR OF THE PARLIAMENT

The chair of the Parliament presides over Parliament meetings.

§1 By default the USG President is the chair and moderator of the USG Parliament.

§2 With approval of the previous chair, the USG Parliament may elect a new chair amongst its members at any time during the semester

§3 The chair may be recalled at any time with an absolute 2/3 majority of the Members of Parliament. In this case a new chair must be elected.

§4 The chair can yield the moderation right to another present USG member at any time during a meeting for

- i. the discussion of an agenda point
- ii. the introduction of a proposal
- iii. the remaining meeting

Article IX
Academic Affairs Committee By-Laws

SECTION 39. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMITTEE

The Academic Affairs Committee (AAC) of the Undergraduate Student Government (USG) shall gather undergraduate student opinions on current academic issues and represent and mediate the students' opinions towards faculty and staff.

§1 The Committee shall strive for the best solution for the USB as a whole. It is the objective of the committee to enhance overall teaching quality.

§2 The Committee shall be the contact institution for students who have problems with or suggestions about academic policies and regulations. The committee shall maintain an open mind and look for solutions and new ideas within the academic realm at Jacobs University.

SECTION 40. COMPOSITION AND ROLES

The AAC shall be represented by students of all focus areas, and all majors. Each focus area shall elect its representative, who is a member of the Parliament as well. Students may become members of the AAC representing their majors. Special roles within the AAC are, but not limited to:

- i. AAC Chair
- ii. Focus area representatives
- iii. Undergraduate Student Representative (and substitute) in the Academic Senate

783 §1 Candidates in or initiators of an election shall be allowed to have an official public profile using an 784 online forum set-up by the EC, in order to present their ideas and opinions relevant to the election.

785 §2 A General Assembly (GA) organized by the EC will take place during the campaigning period, i.e.
786 after the candidates announcement and before the voting starts.

787 §3 The purpose of the GA is to (physically) present the candidates, and to have a debate forum where 788 any member of the Jacobs Community shall have the opportunity to ask questions, especially towards 789 the candidates.

790 SECTION 94. CAMPAIGNING

791 Candidates shall have the right to democratically campaign in an appropriate and honest way. The 792 Election Committee shall have the responsibility to more explicitly define the above, if requested by any 793 student. All candidates agree and accept that:

794 i. campaigning is only allowed during the campaign period,

795 ii. slander is strictly prohibited,

796 iii. in the case that candidates by their own wish shall need financial resources for campaigning, no
797 funding from USG or Campus Life shall be used.

798 SECTION 95. CANDIDATES' MISCONDUCT

799 The election Committee shall have the right to establish additional regulations regarding public cam-
800 paigning if deemed appropriate and impose sanctions/disqualify candidates. These additional regulations
801 must comply with the Constitution of the USB.

802 SECTION 96. VOTER ELIGIBILITY

803 Every member of the USB who has not lost his or her right to vote shall be eligible to vote in any election
804 by the USB.

805 SECTION 97. ONLINE BALLOTS

806 The IT Department has the task to set up an election platform for online voting. Ballots have to be 807 approved by the election Committee prior to the election. To be considered fit for being used in voting, a 808 ballot has to contain all options presented in an equal way without discriminating any of them.

809 SECTION 98. VIOLATIONS

810 Violations of the election rules and regulations set forth in these by-laws may result in:

811 i. the violator losing his or her status as a candidate in the election

812 ii. the election being invalid

813 iii. new election results being issued.

814 Such cases shall be handled and decided upon by the EC.

SECTION 99. PUBLICATION OF RESULTS

Immediately after the vote-tallying is finished, the election Committee shall inform the secretariat about the results of the election. The secretariat shall then publish the results of the election, including the number of eligible voters, the number of votes cast, the number of valid votes, the number of invalid votes, the number of votes for each of the options or candidates, the number of votes for each of the options or candidates per college, and naming the winning option or candidate. This shall be done through a notification sent to all student email accounts and an announcement posted on the student forum.

SECTION 100. TAKING OFFICE

Once the newly-elected members of the USG Parliament are determined, the newly-elect members of the USG Parliament and the outgoing members take responsibility that the newly-elected members of the USG Parliament are trained in their respective tasks.
