1 PART A
2 CONSTITUTION OF THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT BODY

3 Preamble

4 Acting as the voice of all students enrolled at Jacobs University, the Undergraduate Student Government
5 (USG) shall actively work to improve the quality of life (in all its aspects) for the Undergraduate Student
6 Body (USB), along with the university administration and community as a whole. The purpose of the 7 Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is to work in the best interest of the student body.

8 According to the Jacobs University Academic Constitution, "the responsibilities of the Student Government
9 include representing Students towards the respective bodies within as well as outside Jacobs University,
10 serving as the link between Students and university authorities, administration or other groups on campus
11 and actively contributing to the communication between those bodies, appointing all representatives of 12 students, and ensuring continuity."

13 Believing in the right of self-governance, the Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall elect its representa-
14 tives. Its Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is entirely student-run and politically independent of 15 any administrative bodies.

16 Article I
17 The Undergraduate Student Government

18 The USG is formed in order to provide an official and representative organization to receive student ques-
19 tions and suggestions, investigate student problems and take appropriate action, provide the official voice
20 through which the student opinion may be expressed, encourage the development of responsible student 21 participation in the overall policy and decision making processes of the university community, foster an 22 awareness of the students' role in the academic community, enhance the quality and scope of education at 23 Jacobs University Bremen, provide means for responsible and effective participation in the organization of 24 student affairs, and establish guidelines and this Constitution for the Undergraduate Student Government
25 at Jacobs University.

26 SECTION 1. EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE AND JUDICIAL POWER

27 The Undergraduate Student Body (USB) shall have the right to self-governance through the Undergrad-
28 uate Student Government (USG), which is the main authority body of the USB, through:

- 29 i. the USG Executive Unit (composed out of the Student Committees), having the executive power of 30 the USB,

- iii. the approval or rejection of a Funding Application or an Addendum
- iv. the writing of confidential, USG-internal reports on why respective Funding Applications or Addenda were approved or rejected, containing specific recommendations for the USG Parliament,
- v. the submission of approved Funding Applications and Addenda as well as the corresponding reports to the USG Parliament,
- vi. the checking and approval of receipts and invoices and their submission of such receipts and invoices to the Campus Life Department,
- vii. the accounting of the USG Budget and notification of the USG Parliament about the situation of the USG Budget,
- viii. communication to the respective staff within the administrative body of Jacobs University.

SECTION 47. DUTIES OF THE TREASURER

The FAC shall be led by an USG Parliamentarian who has been directly elected in the position of "Treasurer" by the student body. The Treasurer takes the responsibility for:

- i. all work of and within the Financial Affairs Committee,
- ii. attendance of all USG Parliament meetings and presentation of current FAC matters,
- iii. communication with the USG such as recommendations or reports on Funding Applications,
- iv. the submission of an annual budget report at the end of each academic year to the USG Parliament,
- v. passing on all relevant information to the succeeding Treasurer,
- vi. the establishment of the FAC as defined in Article X, Section 2.

SECTION 48. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FAC

§1 The Treasurer shall conduct a formal application procedure in conjunction with a second USG Parliamentarian for students wishing to join the FAC.

§2 The size of the FAC for effective and efficient functioning shall be decided by the Treasurer.

§3 Committee members of the FAC shall hereafter be referred to as "Financial Experts".

SECTION 49. STUDENT'S RIGHT TO APPLY FOR FUNDING

All students of Jacobs University shall have the right to apply for funding of the USG for their initiatives and/or club activities, as long as the criteria specified in these By-Laws are met.

P:

SECTION 50. FUNDING APPLICATIONS

All Applications have to go through the FAC first, and the FAC has the right to decline any incoming application.

The FAC has the authority to fund Applications or Addenda that amount up to €500 and the obligation to emit a formal notification about such funding to the USG Parliament. This shall be valid only if the FAC consists of more than seven (7) members.

Any amount exceeding €500 will require an additional approval by the President's office, and any amount exceeding €1000 will require vote of approval by a simple majority in the USG Parliament.

SECTION 51. PROFIT-GENERATING EVENTS

The FAC shall only fund profit-generating events, initiatives, and the like as long as they meet one of the following criteria:

- i. profits are reinvested in the continuity of the club or event,
- ii. profits are donated to a cause deemed appropriate by the Parliamentary Finance Committee if the Funding Application is €250 or less, and by the Undergraduate Student Government if the application exceeds €500,
- iii. profits are returned to the USG Budget.

SECTION 52. MISCELLANEOUS FUNDING REGULATION

§1 The FAC has the authority to approve or reject Addenda for redistribution of funds, as long as they remain in the limit of the initial budget. Addenda intent on raising the initial budget stipulated in the initial Funding Applications can only be approved by the FAC if they request up to €200, as otherwise they have to be approved by the USG Parliament.

§2 The FAC has the authority to waive the requirement according to which the organizers are obliged to portray the USG logo in certain events or clubs.

§3 The FAC has the authority to lend out USG property with reasonable assurance of return. The Chair is responsible for the management of property loans. If the Chair shall be indisposed for an extended period of time, the USG Parliament can opt for ceding this power to the USG President for the duration of the Chair's absence if the Chair has provided a signed temporary removal of power.

President's Office

SECTION 55. COMPOSITION AND ROLES

SECTION 56. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

The President's Office and its Support Structures shall convene and preside weekly meetings of the USG Parliament. The President's Office shall oversee the workings of the committees of the USG, taking the information and their opinions into account when making decisions.

SECTION 57. DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

The President shall act as the primary representative of the USG to the USB, and the primary representative of the USB to the University Administration. The President shall ensure the proper functioning and efficiency of the Committees of the USG.

SECTION 58. DUTIES OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

The Vice President shall aid the President in any matters pertaining to the duties of the President to the best interest of the USG. The Vice President shall further:

- i. be the Acting Head of the USG whenever the President is absent and/or not legitimized,
- ii. oversee the matters of the Disciplinary Council and attend the hearings when they occur,
- iii. be the foremost contact for further developing and advancing the disciplinary procedures at Jacobs University together with its administration.

SECTION 59. EVENT OF UNTIMELY TERMINATION

In the event that the President/Vice-President steps down from his/her role before the proper conclusion of the term, a new President shall be elected from the existing members of the USB Parliament in the earliest possible convenience.

§1 In accordance with Article XII, Section 58, Point i, the Vice President shall become the Interim President of the USG until the proper introduction of the new President into his/her office.

§2 There shall be no role of interim Vice President until the conclusion of the said election.

PART C PROVISIONS

Acronyms

Article XIII
Definitions

SECTION 60. CONSTITUTION

Unless stated otherwise, the term "constitution" refers to the text of the present constitution, as legislative document of the Undergraduate Student Body (USB).

SECTION 61. STUDENTS AND UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT BODY (USB)

Unless stated otherwise, the term "students" refers to undergraduate students as defined in the university constitution, i.e. Bachelor and pre-degree students currently enrolled at Jacobs University. Unless stated otherwise, the term "student body" refers to the Undergraduate Student Assembly, as defined by Jacobs University constitution.

SECTION 62. ^{P:}MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

^{P:}The members of the USB Parliament, Members of Parliament or MP for short, are the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, College Representatives and Focus Area Representatives.

SECTION 63. P: MEMBER OF THE USG

P: All members of the USG Parliament^S: and all members of the USG Executive Unit^P: and all Secretaries or members of Support Structures are Members of the USG. ^S: are USG members. Additionally, all major-representatives, all secretaries and all members of supporting structures are adjunct USG members. For the purpose of the constitution, they are not regarded as USG members, unless specified otherwise.

SECTION 64. UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE (USR)

The Undergraduate Student Representative (USR) is the person physically participating at the University meeting, as stipulated by the Jacobs University Constitution.

SECTION 65. PROVISION

A provision is a complementary law adopted by the Student Government according the constitution. They shall be referenced in the text of the constitution as soon as they are adopted. They are approved or amended by a simple majority vote of the USG Parliament.

SECTION 66. P: RULES OF PROCEDURE

P: Rules of Procedure are complementary provisions of a unit, a committee or the election committee regarding their internal working procedures. Consequently, they don't violate nor affect the USG constitution and existent bylaws which are not themselves Rules of Procedure. They also don't affect any other constituency of the USG. Thus, they shall be amended by a simple majority of members of the respective unit or committee and approved by a simple majority of the USG Parliament.

SECTION 67. STUDENT CLUB

A student club is a student-run organization focused on a social/academic/sport or leisure purpose. To be official, it has to be registered with Campus Life.

SECTION 68. STUDENT BUDGET

The student budget refers to the aggregate amount of money paid by students as the USG tax collected by the university.

SECTION 69. POPULAR ELECTIONS

All elections in the USB shall be general, direct, free, fair, secret and held accordingly to the Election Procedure By-Laws of Article XIV.

SECTION 70. REFERENDUM

A referendum is a legislative act of the USG decided upon by a popular vote of the USB. The outcome of a referendum shall be binding on the USG.

§1 The organization of a referendum requires a simple majority of all Members of the USG to pass it to a student vote.

§2 A referendum is considered to be successful if a simple majority votes in favour, with a threshold quorum of a fifth (20%) of all eligible voters.

§3 No decisions shall be implemented if a referendum is pending on an issue.

SECTION 71. STUDENT OPINION

The USG may consult the USB for future decisions via the Student Opinion on the voting platform. Its purpose is to give more information and leverage to the actions of the USG. However, the outcome of the Student Opinion shall be binding on the USG, unless the USG Parliament votes in absolute unanimity against it.

SECTION 72. POPULAR INITIATIVE

A popular initiative is an issue, not voted on by the USG, relating to the USB. It is put directly to a popular vote by the USB without prior consultation with the USG. The outcome of the popular initiative shall be binding on the USG. The organization of popular initiatives requires a petition signed by at least twenty (5%) of all students. The Members of the USG shall approve the initiative or add options to the ballot to ensure feasibility with an absolute majority vote. Ballot options included on the petition for the popular initiative may only be excluded by the Members of the USG for reasons of feasibility.

SECTION 73. GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE USB

A general assembly is an official meeting called for by the USG to which all undergraduate students are invited.

SECTION 74. ABSOLUTE AND SIMPLE MAJORITY

An absolute majority refers to a voting outcome in which more than fifty percent (50%) of the total number of the respective constituency (present or not) votes in favor. A simple majority refers to a voting outcome in which there are more "in favor" votes than "against" votes among the physically present members; abstentions are part of the pool.

SECTION 75. ABSOLUTE AND SIMPLE UNANIMITY

An absolute unanimity refers to a voting outcome in which all members of the respective constituency (present or not) votes in favor. A simple unanimity refers to a voting outcome in which all physically present members vote in favour.

SECTION 76. CAMPAIGN PERIOD

The period from announcing a candidature and before the voting for it starts shall be known as the campaign period.

SECTION 77. IMPEACHMENT

The process of removing someone from their office.

Article XIV Election Procedures

The provisions of this article shall only apply to elections for positions in the USG.

SECTION 78. ELECTION COMMITTEE

The election committee (EC) consists of the elected members of the USG who do not finish their term at the respective election time. If requested, they shall be supported by any remaining members. The election committee has to form itself at the president's initiative. The committee then elects a head of elections.

SECTION 79. SPECIAL ELECTIONS

Any other elections (except the two specified by the constitution in 13) during the academic year shall be organized by the President of the USG who chairs the respective election committee.

SECTION 80. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Each parliament and secretariat member shall have the duty to report any irregularities to Student Court. No member of the student court, parliament and secretariat who is supervising the election shall be a candidate in or initiator of the election in question.

SECTION 81. RULES OF PROCEDURE

The election is carried out in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Constitution of the USB and these provisions.

SECTION 82. CANDIDATES' APPLICATIONS

Students wishing to apply shall submit their application to the EC, which will collect the applications and prepare them for the election. Applications may consist of a letter of intent (one-pager), explaining the motivation for applying, past experience in student governments or university administration, an outline of an agenda they plan to pursue and proposed solutions, a strategy for engaging with the USG and other stakeholders.

SECTION 83. ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENTS

All elections shall be announced no later than two (2) days prior to the election, naming the options or candidates and functions they are running for, place, date, and time of the election. Such announcements shall take place through a notification sent to all student email accounts and by other platforms set by the USG via the EC.

SECTION 84. CANDIDATES' ELIGIBILITY

The student shall be physically present in the respective semester of being in the office.

§1 Only students that have been USG members in a previous semester are eligible to run for an office in the USG. In case of membership in committees, active membership is required.

§2 Students in their third year of study may not run for an office in the USG in the May elections of their last year.

§3 Students in their second year of study who will spend the fifth semester abroad or will do an internship in their fifth semester may not run for an office in the USG in the May elections of their second year.

§4 Foundation Year students may only run for an office if they have been offered admission for undergraduate studies at Jacobs University and have accepted that offer.

§5 Only in exceptional cases, as decided by the USG Parliament, one student is allowed to be the Undergraduate Student Representatives of more than one official committees of Jacobs University with student representatives (USR).^{N:}

Maybe restrict chairs from being members of too many committees instead. Given the high number of USRs and substitutes, this might otherwise be too restrictive.

SECTION 85. ANNOUNCING THE CANDIDATES

The EC is responsible for officially announcing the candidates.

§1 Candidates in or initiators of an election shall be allowed to have an official public profile using an online forum set-up by the EC, in order to present their ideas and opinions relevant to the election.

§2 A General Assembly (GA) organized by the EC will take place during the campaigning period, i.e. after the candidates announcement and before the voting starts.

§3 The purpose of the GA is to (physically) present the candidates, and to have a debate forum where any member of the Jacobs Community shall have the opportunity to ask questions, especially towards the candidates.

SECTION 86. CAMPAIGNING

Candidates shall have the right to democratically campaign in an appropriate and honest way. The Election Committee shall have the responsibility to more explicitly define the above, if requested by any student. All candidates agree and accept that:

i. campaigning is only allowed during the campaign period,

ii. slander is strictly prohibited,

iii. in the case that candidates by their own wish shall need financial resources for campaigning, no funding from USG or Campus Life shall be used.

SECTION 87. CANDIDATES' MISCONDUCT

The election committee shall have the right to establish additional regulations regarding public campaigning if deemed appropriate and impose sanctions/disqualify candidates. These additional regulations must comply with the Constitution of the USB.

733 SECTION 88. VOTER ELIGIBILITY

734 Every member of the USB who has not lost his or her right to vote shall be eligible to vote in any election
735 by the USB.

736 SECTION 89. ONLINE BALLOTS

737 The IT Department has the task to set up an election platform for online voting. Ballots have to be 738 approved by the election committee prior to the election. To be considered fit for being used in voting, a 739 ballot has to contain all options presented in an equal way without discriminating any of them.

740 SECTION 90. VIOLATIONS

741 Violations of the election rules and regulations set forth in these by-laws may result in:

- 742 i. the violator losing his or her status as a candidate in the election
- 743 ii. the violator losing his or her status as eligible voter for future elections
- 744 iii. the election being invalid
- 745 iv. new election results being issued.

746 Such cases shall be handled and decided upon by the EC.

747 SECTION 91. PUBLICATION OF RESULTS

748 Immediately after the vote-tallying is finished, the election committee shall inform the secretariat about 749 the results of the election. The secretariat shall then publish the results of the election, including the num-
750 ber of eligible voters, the number of votes cast, the number of valid votes, the number of invalid votes, the 751 number of votes for each of the options or candidates, the number of votes for each of the options or can-
752 didates per college, and naming the winning option or candidate. This shall be done through a notification 753 sent to all student email accounts and an announcement posted on the student forum.

754 SECTION 92. TAKING OFFICE

755 Once the newly-elected members of the USB Parliament are determined, the newly-elect members of the 756 USB Parliament and the outgoing members take responsibility that the newly-elected members of the USB
757 Parliament are trained in their respective tasks.

758 Article XV

759 s:Meeting Policies and Student Voice

760 s:The provisions in this article exclusively apply to ?.

761 SECTION 93. CHAIR AND QUORUM

762 The chair of the USB Parliament meetings is the President, and if missing, the Vice-President. A meeting
763 consists of at least a quorum of p:five Members of Parliament which have to include the President or the 764 Vice-President.

765 SECTION 94. REGULAR MEETINGS

766 Meetings have to take place regularly and are open to the general public of Jacobs University, unless p:the 767 Parliament needs to discuss confidential agenda items.

768 §1 Attendance of Members of Parliament is mandatory.

769 §2 The meetings have to be made public at least two days prior to the meeting.

770 §3 p:Confidential agenda items are discussed with elected or appointed members only. The USB Parlia-
771 ment may choose to include any other student p:if allowed and considered appropriate by a simple 772 majority.

773 SECTION 95. DECISION-MAKING

774 Each member of the USB shall have one (1) vote in all matters. Decisions shall be made by a simple 775 majority vote with at least fifty percent (50%) of all members voting. Voting takes place publicly and the names of the "ayes", "nays", and "abstentions" shall be recorded in the minutes. With a simple majority vote the USG may declare a secret vote (ballot) in which case only the number of votes shall be recorded.

SECTION 96. STUDENT VOTE

The USG may ask the USB via a Student Body Opinion procedure regarding USG decisions and future actions. However, the Student Body Opinion may be overruled with a full unanimity of the USG Parliament.

SECTION 97. EXTERNAL OUTREACH POWER

The USG shall have the right to communicate with external parties, as stated by Academic Constitution of Jacobs University Bremen.

§1 The USG members, as any student, shall have the right to contact any external bodies, only if they do so as individuals and not representing the USG.

§2 The whole USG (Parliament and Executive Unit) has to be informed of any intention for external communication.

§3 A simple majority vote in the USG Parliament, among the USG members or a Student Opinion Decision may enact or prevent any external communication.

§4 In particular, the USG President is the main responsible for any external communication.

SECTION 98. COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBILITIES

One of the USG's core missions is to inform the USB.

§1 A regular task shall be a monthly newsletter of one page with USG past, current and future projects relevant to the respective time-frame.

§2 Failure to do so for two months consecutively constitutes a valid reason for impeachment.

SECTION 99. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest must be declared and the involved members must be omitted from voting. In case of a tie in the voting procedure, the final decision is made jointly by the President, Vice-President and the respective Committee Head.

SECTION 100. RESIGNATION AND IMPEACHMENT

In the event of an USG Member resigning, not being able, not being willing to continue their tasks as a Member, or being successfully impeached, the USG Parliament will appoint an interim for the remaining period of the resigning member.

§1 Any Member of the USG may resign provided that the USG is informed two (2) weeks before the intended date of resignation.

§2 Any member of the USG shall be impeached by either of the two: Two thirds (2/3) of the (other) elected members or referendum. Such a vote or referendum must clearly state the grounds for impeachment. Repeated ^{S:}unexcused absence ^{P:}of three (3) ^{S:consecutive} ^{P:}meetings or more and/or not accomplishing designated tasks automatically start the process of impeachment of a member:

i. The accused member and the impeacher (if any) have one (1) week time to argument and present their case.

ii. At the next USG Parliament meeting, the impeachment is voted upon.

§3 After resignation or impeachment, an officer may not run again for the same office within the term that the resignation ^{P:}or impeachment took place.

Article XVI

Final provisions and policy changes

SECTION 101. CONSTITUTION SCOPE

The constitution of the USB at Jacobs University is of a general character. Any foregoing article of the constitution may be complemented, according to this constitution, with provisions issued by the USG.

§1 Part A of this document is the explicit Constitution, that has to be amended according to Article XVI, Section 102.
§2 ^sPart B represents By-Laws and secondary provisions, that can be changed internally by the USB Parliament according to Article XVI, Section 4
§3 ^sPart C represents complementary provisions, definitions and guidelines.

SECTION 102. AMENDMENTS AND REFERENDUM

Amendments of this constitution or the ratification of a new constitution can only be passed in a successful referendum by the USB. Before the organization of a referendum, any new constitution or amendments to the old constitution must be introduced via a general assembly to the USB.

SECTION 103. OVERRULING

The provisions of this constitution shall not violate in any way general provisions of German, European, or international law as far as applicable. If such provisions exist, they shall be immediately revoked and/or amended.

SECTION 104. INTERNAL CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS OF BY-LAWS

§1 Existing by-laws and provisions can be amended or replaced and new ones can be introduced only with a two-thirds (2/3) majority of members voting in favour.
§2 If the name of a document, committee, unit, or office mentioned in this constitution changes without the change of the respective entity violating this constitution, this document may be updated by substitutions of the old name with the new name upon approval of the USB by a simple majority vote.

SECTION 105. ANNOUNCING CHANGES

If additional provisions are issued in form of complementary by-laws, the publicly available text of this constitution must clearly mention the names and articles of the relevant by-laws.

SECTION 106. TERMINATION

This constitution shall expire upon ratification of a new constitution by the USB.

Version 1.1 of this constitution is proposed for amendment. This document has been last edited on October 29, 2018.
